The News in Brief

EASTER—THE GREAT STORY—When Jesus arose from tomb there were no newspaper wire services to flash the story to the world, no radio or television to give their report on the event, no correspondents to expound the details and meaning of the miracle. But because the story of the Resurrection is the greatest of all time it survived the reporting inadequacies of its time and has lived in the minds and hearts of people through the ages.

Council OK's Law Banning Bees in City

Albany's new law prohibiting bees within the city limits becomes effective today.

The City Council Monday night passed the ordinance as an emergency measure, declaring that "bees are a nuisance and endanger the safety and welfare of citizens."

The ordinance states that it is unlawful for any person to keep bees in a hive or other containers, within 600 feet of any dwelling. The law also stipulates that violation would be considered a misdemeanor and is subject to a $300 fine or 90 days in jail.

The measure was introduced by Councilman Lewis Howell, who explained that he had received numerous complaints from people injured by bees.

In other action, the Council called a public hearing in two weeks to determine whether to grant waiver of a rear yard requirement on property at 1051 Ventura Ave. The Planning and Zoning Commission recommended its approval.

The Council received seven letters and a petition signed by 652 property owners protesting the proposed development of Albany Hill. One letter was received favoring removal of the hill.

The letters and petition were referred to the public hearing held on the hill issue Thursday evening. A sum of $300 was approved for the Alameda County Centennial Celebration over protests of Councilwoman Mrs. Kathie Zahn. She

Dr. Stallone to Navy; Dr. McMahon Back As Health Officer

The City Council today has named Dr. Robert T. McMahon to take over as city health officer during the absence of Dr. Victor Stallone Jr., who is preparing to leave for a two-year tour of duty in the Navy.

Dr. Stallone will report to a fleet Marine unit at Oceanside April 10 for an indoctrination course, after which he will be sent to the Pacific Command at Pearl Harbor for reassignment.

The Council granted Dr. Stallone an indefinite leave of absence at a special meeting Tuesday evening, during which Dr. McMahon was appointed for the post. Dr. Stallone took over as health officer in 1950 when Dr. McMahon resigned because of illness.

Action was taken over the protests of Councilwoman Mrs. Kathie Zahn, who moved that Dr. Stallone's services be terminated immediately.

Dr. Stallone's private practice will be carried on by Dr. Edward O'Regan.

Albany Readies Gala Easter

Area Church Programs Announced

"And the angel answered and said unto the women, 'Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.'"

This passage from the 28th chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel and other scriptures will be retold in words and music Sunday at area churches where special Easter services are planned in commemoration of Christ's Resurrection.

St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Washington and Curtis St., has scheduled identical services at 7 and 11 a.m. The Rev. John H. Blackledge, rector, will speak on the subject "The Triumph of Tragedy."

Mrs. Lois Fox Herr will sing "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" by Mozart, and the choir's offertory is "He Is Risen," by Mrs. Rita Dows, church organist.

The presentation of Mite Boxes and Flowers will be held during the 9:15 a.m. family communion and church school hour. The Mite Boxes have been used by the children during Lent to collect money for missionary work of the church.

"Some Strange Easter Notions" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Douglas Henderson at identical services slated for 9:45 and 11 a.m. Sunday at Albany Community Methodist Church, Marin and Stannage Aves. Special music will be offered by the choir and soloists. A nursery is provided for small children.

The traditional decoration of the cross with cala lilies will be featured at the 9 a.m. Sunday school hour. Over 200 lilies will be used. Special Easter music and recitations will be presented by various youngsters.

At 7:30 p.m. the new sound motion picture story of the Betrayal, Crucifixion and Resurrection, "I Beheld His Glory," will be presented at the church. The local showing will be one of the first in the Bay Area.

Identical worship services will be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. for the Easter Festival at Christ Lutheran Church, Ashbury and Stockton, El Cerrito.

The earlier service will replace the Sunday school hour in order that children may participate as a family with their parents.

The Rev. G. H. Muecke, pastor, has chosen the sermon theme "The Glad Songs of Victory." Featured musical numbers will include the solo, "Thine Is the Glory," sung by Eimo Hinrichs, and the Latvian spiritual, "My God and I." (Continued on Page 7)

Good Friday Rites Today

Interdenominational Good Friday services, sponsored by the Berkeley-Albany Church Federation will be held locally at the First Baptist Church today from 12 noon until 3 p.m. The service will be based on "The Seven Last Words From the Cross," with seven local ministers participating.

The Church Federation is also sponsoring the showing of the new religious film, "I Beheld His Glory," at 2 o'clock today at the Oaks Theatre. The all-color, sound picture of the last week of the life of Christ has been widely hailed across the nation as an outstanding portrayal of these significant events in Christian history. The film will be shown Sunday evening at Albany Community Church.

A one hour Good Friday community service will be held at 1 o'clock today at Grace Lutheran Church in El Cerrito. Meditations on "The Seven Words From the Cross" will be given by the Rev. Donald Deffner of Berkeley and Rev. O. R. Janke, pastor.

At 7:45 p.m. a devotional service will be held with the pastor speaking on "The Riven Side." The choir will sing at both services.

Christ Lutheran Church in El Cerrito will hold Good Friday services from 12 noon to 1 o'clock today. The sermon meditation, based on the last word of the 22nd Psalm, will be given by Rev. H. G. Muecke, pastor.

"April in Paris" is the theme for the annual fashion show to be presented by students of Albany High School sewing classes for members of the PTA at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 9 in the school auditorium.

An estimated 100 girls will participate in the show under the direction of Mrs. Helen B. Akin and Mrs. Ida W. Cherry.

One of the highlights of the show will be the bridal party. Betty Bishop will be commentator and Bess Ann Stallone pianist.

The program will also include three dance numbers presented by students in the modern dance group under leadership of Mrs. Tess Tyler and Mrs. Akin.

Douglas Henderson, Rev. Robert Tarr, Dr. Fred L. Fisher, Rev. A. O. Odegard, Rev. Merrill Follansbee and Rev. E. T. Moran.

An Easter sunrise service, sponsored by the North Bay congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, will be held at 6:30 a.m. Sunday at the El Cerrito Motor Movie, Fairmount Ave. near San Pablo Ave.

Speaker will be Prof. Oscar T. Walte, president of California Lutheran Concordia College in Oakland. His topic will be "Jesus Rose on Easter Day."

Liturgyists for the service will be the Rev. Orwin R. Janke of Grace Lutheran Church in El Cerrito, and Rev. Otto Rohrer of Trinity Lutheran Church in Richmond.

Special music will also be featured from the traditional Easter hymnody. Esther H. Hughes, accompanied by Lucile McKay, will be the vocal soloist, and Richard Anderson, Carl Anderson and Laurie McGaw will be the trumpeters.

A speaker for each individual car will provide certainty for hearing the entire service, regardless of weather conditions. Those who attend early will hear the famed Canterbury choir on records from 6 to 6:30 a.m. when the formal service begins.

The event is co-sponsored by local civic and fraternal organizations and merchants in cooperation with the Albany Recreation Department.

Three hunts have been planned with youngsters 12 years of age and under eligible to participate. Why was the resurrection of Jesus Christ on that first Easter morning an event of such tremendous significance?

Because:

1. It proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that Jesus was what He had claimed to be, the eternal Son of God, and that all of His teachings are true. (Romans 1:4)

2. It proved that the Father had accepted the sacrifice of His Son for the salvation of the world and that now the sins of all mankind had been atoned. (1 Corinthians 15:47).

3. It proved that Christ had the power to keep the promise He had given His disciples: "Because I live, ye shall live also." Christ's resurrection is the guarantee of eternal life to every believer.

Throughout the centuries the promise of Christ rings loud and clear: "I am the Resurrection and the Life; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die." (John 11:25). Do you believe in Him?

He Is Risen!

We know that Easter will be celebrated in all Christian churches this Sunday, but we feel that Easter should be celebrated in every Christian heart as well. The promise of everlasting life, which this holiday symbolizes, was a promise given to all men: "Because I live, ye shall also."
